

AWARDS POLICY

1. Area of Responsibility

1.1 Administration

2. Date last updated

2.1 01 August 2020

3. Purpose

3.1 Basketball Queensland (BQ) wishes to acknowledge and recognise the support and effort of many dedicated people within the Queensland basketball community in the preparation and conduct of basketball operations and the accomplishment and dedication to the sport by its players, coaches, technical officials, contributors and associations.

3.2 BQ does this by the giving of awards.

3.3 The Awards are in four categories:

- (a) Service Awards
- (b) Annual Awards
- (c) Hall of Fame
- (d) Life Members

4. Background

4.1 Previously there were two distinct Awards Ceremonies:

- (a) Awards Dinner – at which both the Annual Awards for the preceding year and Life Memberships were acknowledged and presented. This was conducted annually in May in conjunction with the Annual General Meeting and the Annual Administrators' Conference.
- (b) Hall of Fame Inductions – at which people were inducted into the Queensland Basketball Hall of Fame (QBHF). This was conducted biennially in September or October with a maximum of ten (10) people inducted into the QBHF.

4.2 There was a policy for the Hall of Fame. When nominations for Annual Awards were called for, a policy of sorts was issued with the nomination requirements. There was no policy for Life Membership.

Service Awards were not awarded. This document creates a single policy which incorporates all the awards.

4.3 Due to the restrictions imposed in 2020 by the Queensland State Government to combat COVID-19:

(a) In 2020:

- (i) the Annual Award winners for 2020 were announced but no Awards Dinner was held;
- (ii) the QBHF Class of 2020 was postponed; and
- (iii) no Life Memberships were awarded.

(b) In 2021:

- (i) the QBHF Class of 2021 will be presented in April; and
- (ii) the Awards Dinner will be held in November:
 - (1) for the Annual Awards, as it would otherwise be impossible to determine a winner in any category given that there has been limited activity during the year, the period under consideration is 1 August 2020 to 31 July 2021;
 - (2) a Life Membership may be awarded; and
 - (3) Service Awards may be awarded.

(c) From 2022 onwards, the Awards Dinners would be held generally in December annually and will incorporate all four Award categories, subject to satisfaction of each awards criteria.

5. Service Awards

5.1 Background

(a) The BQ Service Awards were created in 2020 to recognize the contribution that many people, who are usually, but not always, volunteers, make to basketball in Queensland.

5.2 Nominations

(a) Each year nominations will be called for the following Service Awards:

- (i) Bronze – 15 years' service;
- (ii) Silver – 25 years' service;
- (iii) Gold – 35 years' service; and
- (iv) Diamond – 50 or more years' service.

(b) Nominees for the Service Awards can include:

- (i) Management Committee/Board members;
- (ii) players'

- (iii) coaches;
- (iv) technical officials;
- (v) tribunal members;
- (vi) administrators;
- (vii) fundraisers;
- (viii) any other individual who has been associated with an Affiliated Association.

5.3 Selection Process

- (a) Nominations may be submitted by:
 - (i) an Affiliated Association as defined by the Constitution (i.e. a member of BQ that has voting rights) (Affiliated Association);
 - (ii) a Board Member;
 - (iii) a Life Member of BQ; or
 - (iv) the Chief Executive Officer of BQ (CEO).
- (b) If any individual or group wishes to nominate a person for a Service Award, they should consult with a person or Affiliated Association listed in the paragraph above to make the nomination on their behalf if that person or Affiliated Association deems this appropriate.
- (c) Nominations should be lodged online using a form published by BQ.

5.4 Selection Committee

- (a) The CEO, in conjunction with staff at BQ and any other person the CEO deems appropriate, will review the nominations to ensure that the candidate meets the necessary criteria for the award.
- (b) The ultimate decision as to each award winner is for the CEO.

5.5 Specific Selection Criteria

- (a) Individuals will be awarded a Service to Basketball Award for long service to a BQ Affiliated Association.
- (b) This award is not based on performance, but length of service.
- (c) The service of an individual can be split over a number of Affiliated Associations.
- (d) Service Awards may not be awarded posthumously.

5.6 General Selection Criteria

- (a) In addition to the criteria above, the person's integrity, sportsmanship and character must also be considered.

5.7 Awards Ceremony

- (a) People who are awarded the Bronze, Silver and Gold awards will be named at the Awards Dinner but will not be presented with these awards at the Awards Dinner. Instead they will be presented with the award through the Affiliated Association that nominated them or the Affiliated Association they are then associated with, at a time or event determined by the Affiliated Association.
- (b) Awards will be presented to recipients of the Diamond award at the Awards Dinner.

6. Annual Awards

6.1 Background

- (a) The Annual Awards are designed to acknowledge and recognize performances of current players, coaches, technical officials, contributors and Affiliated Associations.

6.3 Selection Process

- (a) Nominations for each Annual Award may be submitted by:
 - (i) an Affiliated Association;
 - (ii) a Life Member of BQ; or
 - (iii) the CEO.
- (b) If any individual or group wishes to nominate a person or Affiliated Association for an Annual Award, they should consult with a person or Affiliated Association listed in the paragraph above to make the nomination on their behalf if that person or Affiliated Association deems this appropriate.

- (c) Nominations should be lodged online using a form published by BQ and should be based on outstanding achievement(s) for the period 1 August in the year prior to the award being presented to 31 July in the year in which the award is to be presented.

6.4 Selection Committee

- (a) The CEO, in conjunction with staff at BQ and any other person the CEO deems appropriate, will review the nominations and recommend award winners in each category to the BQ Honours and Awards Committee (HAC).
- (b) The role of the HAC is to review the recommended award recipients in each category ensuring that the candidate selected meets the necessary criteria for selection prior to being presented to the BQ Board (Board) for final approval.
- (c) The ultimate decision as to each award recipient is for the Board.

 - (ii) a Board Member;
 - (iii) a Life Member of BQ;
 - (iv) the CEO; or
 - (v) the HAC itself.

- (c) If any individual or group wishes to nominate a person for the QBHF, they should consult with a person or Affiliated Association listed in the paragraph above to make the nomination on their behalf if that person or Affiliated Association deems this appropriate.

7.3 Selection Process

- (a) For any potential candidate that the HAC considers to satisfy the criteria, a nomination packet consisting of news clippings, magazine articles, and/or other informative and factual data about the (now) proposed candidate must be submitted to the CEO.
- (b) If requested by the HAC and approved by the Board, the CEO will appoint a person or entity (i.e. a consultant) to conduct research and undertake assessments of potential or proposed candidates and report back to the HAC.
- (c) The CEO, in conjunction with senior staff at BQ and any other person the CEO deems appropriate, will review the proposed candidate's nomination. The review is to ensure that there are no adverse concerns about the proposed candidate's integrity, sportsmanship and character which would make the award untenable publicly.
- (d) Taking into account any identified concern in the above paragraph, the HAC will make the final recommendations to the Board regarding the proposed candidate for QBHF Membership generally at the September Board meeting.
- (e) A representative of the HAC should be available to present the proposed candidate to the Board if requested by the Board. The representative can then address any questions or provide further information in relation to the proposed candidate.
- (f) The Board is to make the final decision regarding each proposed candidate for membership of the QBHF.
- (g) The Board is able to remove the QBHF status if information about the now QBHF member's integrity, sportsmanship and/or character becomes available or known after the person is admitted to the QBHF, which, if known at the time of the admittance, may have meant that the member would not have been admitted to the QBHF.

7.4 Specific Criteria for Players

- (b) In exceptional circumstances, on the recommendation of the HAC, the Board may approve the induction of more than four candidates annually.
- (c) It is not necessary to induct four QBHF members annually.
- (d) Unless in exceptional circumstances, at least one-half of the nominees from each intake must be from the player category.
- (e) Players must have been retired from competition for five (5) years before being eligible for induction.
- (f) It is the intention of QBHF to achieve equity between the genders.
- (g) QBHF membership may be awarded posthumously.

- (h) An individual can be inducted into the QBHF only once.

7.10 Awards Ceremony

- (a) QBHF inductions will be made at the Awards Dinner.
- (b) A person appointed as a QBHF member will receive the following in recognition of their contribution:
 - (i) a plaque commemorating their achievement;
 - (ii) the information about their achievement will be posted on the BQ website; and
 - (iii) free entry for them and a guest to the Awards Dinner in the year of induction.
- (c) In the year of induction BQ will meet the reasonable costs of inductees attending the Awards Dinner from within Australia and take additional requests under consideration.
- (d) The names of the inductees can be released to the media prior to the Awards Dinner.

8. Life Members

8.1 Background

- (a) A Life Member is the highest award that can be bestowed by BQ.
- (b) BQ started recognising people who were worthy of recognition of Life Membership in 1979.
- (c) The overriding objective of the awarding of Life Membership is to formally recognise people who have given exceptional service and have made outstanding contributions which have provided identifiable benefit to BQ.
