
BY-LAWS OF BASKETBALL QUEENSLAND LIMITED

As amended June 2021

BASKETBALL QUEENSLAND LTD.
Corner Old Cleveland and Tilley Roads, Chandler QLD 4155

Explanatory note/Introduction

This document outlines the by-laws of Basketball Queensland Limited (BQ) which carry the full force and effect of BQ. This is borne out by clauses 215 to 220 of BQ's constitution.

By-laws cover those matters or rules which, like the constitution, bind members and basketball participants who have agreed to abide by the constitution and by-laws through the application and renewal process. As a consequence, members and basketball participants should know about and be able to refer to these rules readily.

By-laws may only be made or amended by the BQ board. By-laws means by-laws made by the BQ board (as amended) under clause 215, until they are repealed by the BQ Board under clause 215 or set aside by special resolution under clause 219.

By-laws may be called something else (for example, codes or policies) if they are expressed to take effect as by-laws under the constitution. As such, the rules or details of the by-laws may be delegated or supported by other documents, such as those listed at clauses 13 and 14 hereof. To be clear, for a code or policy to be a by-law it must be adopted by the BQ Board and stated to take effect as a by-law.

In the event that there is a conflict between the constitution, by-laws and these other documents, the prevailing document for interpretation is the constitution, followed (in order) by:

- The BQ by-laws;
- Delegated or supporting document expressly adopted as by-laws (for example, codes or policies);
- Other supporting documents (for example, guidelines and processes).

The dictionary in Schedule 1 defines terms used in this by-laws document. Those definitions apply unless it would lead to a result that is absurd, meaningless or obviously unintended.
